Richard | are pleased to know that their visits here have made violent love to Josephine, and on slways proved highly remunerative. Wednesday they sought the altar and were bound togother in the houds of matrimony. But their new-found hliss was soon crnelly blasted, for it seems that the sable contraband from Nashville had been married over twenty-two years, and the enraged wife was on the trail of the faithless husband. Richard had stolen $150 ln bills, $150 in gold, and a gold watch and chain valued at $250 from his sponse before deserting her for the charme of another woman. Mrs. Carry No. 1 arrived in the city on Wednesday night, and yesterday, learning of the whereabout of her fickle lord, she went to the Provost Marshal, stated her case, and asked to have the offender punished. A gunrd was sent after the dark-colored bigamist, and with his new-made wife, and the parties implicated in assisting at the and reported at the Marshal'e office. XXXVIIITE CONGRESS-FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, April 21. SENATE.

Mr. Collamer, from the Committee on Post-officea and Post-Roads, reported fivorably a bill for the relief of postmasters who have been robbed by the Confederates or guerillas. The bill was passed.

Mr. Wilson's bill to provide for the priating of the official reports of the armies of the United States was passed.

Mr. Lane, of Kansas, colled up the bill to make Portland, Oregon, or Leavenworth, Kansers, posts of delivery. Passed. Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, offered an amendment providing that the stock of liquors on hand be taxed 50c a gallon. It quors on hand be taxed out a gallon. It is merely carrying out the painciple heretono adopted by Congress. Under the law assed some time ago, foreign liquors were axed, and are paying a duty of foc a gallon. Mr. Stevens, of Pennsylvania, spoke against the bill. Mr. Stevens said he had hoped the subject ing for the army.

CHATTANOOGA, April 21.

rould not have been brought up here again pagitate the llcuse and the country. It had lready been settled by the House that there bould be a received. already been settled by the House that there should he to retroaction tax. There was an incongrnity, it was true, in the hill which had heen previously adopted with regard to the tax on foreign spirits; hut a bill had, ho believed, already been introduced in the Senate to repeal the law, which would no donbt be passed. The Secretary of the Treasury has never given orders for the collection of the tax, and he hoped the ernsade would cease, and the bill promptly faced, and not put in a shape which would keep it lingering oetween the two Houses for the remainder of the seesion. We have lost $4,00,000 by the course heretofore pursued on this suoject. eretofore pursued on this suoject.

Mr. Washburne did not wish to go into eussion of the subject, but he wante to of a the vote of the llouse on this subject gentleman remarked that we had lo ne geutleman remarked that we had lost 000,000 by the former discussion and action this House. He would inform that genmen that we lost many millions of flotters 7 not incissing on the proposition of the genman from New York (Mr. Wood), notwithanding the clamor which had been raised gainst the taxing of stocks on hand, and the im that we could not obtain the assent of Senate to any bill embodying the princ ple. He would call attention to the fact that additional tax on foreign spirits was allowed to stand. He knew of no question which had been so fully canvassed as this of taxing siquous on hand, and the country was satisfied of the institute and arouting was satisfied of the institute and arouting was satisfied. ned of its justice and expedien y.

Mi Stevens said he believed such a 'az was violation of the solm by the god for hos the country.
Mr. Bronnil was or posed to this question of retaxing spirits.

Mr. Morrell said he added this as a migchieveus operation. It could pass the Sanate. the was very important that this bill should be promptly passed in order that it may take effect before the first of May, as to operate upon the income tax. If whiskey on band was taxed, why not other property? have proposed, in order to satisfy all parties to raise duties largely in this bill. In order to still further satisfy them he proposed an anandment, which was agreed, making the tax $1 per gallon from the first of May justead of the first of July. Washlurn's amendment was rejected by 52 | named Engageth Detision, the mathematical who had their passage paid out by the age gerrison du'y, to insure the use of all the available troops against the enemy. The hankrupt till will be reported this evening.
